

SCRANTON PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Scranton Preparatory School congratulates the Class of 2024 and thanks them for their generous service to others and for the example that they have given to us all.

Aidan Barrett
Kin Award

Aiden Patrick Jordan
Jesuit Schools Network Award

Nora Frances Kolucki
Mark E. Clarke Award and Vincent J. Vanston Award for Excellence in the Literary Arts

Keeley Evelyn Lynett
Rev. Herbert B. Keller, S.J. Award

Caroline O'Hara Haggerty
St. Edmund Campion Award

Rocco William Rinaldi
St. Francis Xavier Award

Aidan Barrett
Kin Award

Shel-Andra Marika Joanie Dunkley
The Ignatian Service Award in Memory of Cody J. Barrassé

Callie Anna Gelderman
Magis Award in Memory of Patrick J. Marx

George Stanley Stallman
Magis Award in Memory of Patrick J. Marx

Gavin Patrick Kovaleski
The Joseph '49 and Marie Melone Award

Riley Joseph Nealon
The Marion Hartnett Conaboy Award

Sean Patrick McDonough
Francis P. Long Award for Excellence in Classics

Max Snyder
Daniel F. Picchio Award for Excellence in the Arts

Aubrey Anna Buttner
Gary F. Kaye Memorial Award

Jordan Phillip Odom
Gary F. Kaye Memorial Award

Tyler Thomas Mackrell
Casey O'Malley Award

Alexia Marie Kleinberger
The Excelsior Award

Roman Patrick Valvano
The Excelsior Award

Ethan Mitchell Borick
PIAA Interscholastic Athletic Award

Tessa Elizabeth Mangan
PIAA Interscholastic Athletic Award

Juliana Elysia Monforte
Cardinal John J. O'Connor Scholarship

of the Graduate at Graduation explains that a student graduating from a Jesuit school is usually competent, open to growth, religious, loving, and committed to doing justice. Students have been reminded of these five standards of measure by their teachers, coaches, and administrators each day at Scranton Prep.

Scranton Preparatory School honors those seniors who have distinguished themselves in a way in one or more of these five "Grad at Grad" characteristics during their time at Prep.