

Weekly Warrior
11/12/24

Conductor Cody's Holiday Express

Lackawanna County Library System

Get ready for a magical railway adventure at your local Library. Conductor Cody will be making stops at each Lackawanna County Library System location to share magic, stories, and plenty of excitement for kids of all ages. In the spirit of holiday classics like The Polar Express, head to the North Pole with lots of twists and turns along the way. Golden train tickets will be torn and restored, hot chocolate will magically appear, and kids will even join in the reindeer games. This program is sensory friendly and is for families with children of all ages. Visit our Events Directory or contact your local Library to reserve a space at your Library.

A PA Forward® Initiative Promoting Basic Literacy.

Full Moon Hike

Friday, November 15 / 5:00 P.M.

Lackawanna State Park

Enjoy a guided hike along Turkey Hill Trail in the Lackawanna State Park beneath the rising full moon. This hike is about 1.5 miles along moderate terrain, and November's full moon is known as the Frost Moon, so be sure to dress appropriately for the weather. Adequate footwear, drinking water, and a flashlight are recommended for this night hike. Pre-registration is required and can be done online. Meet at the Park Office.